ESTA DANA VENTURA IMPROVING FINANCIAL INCLUSION IN INDONESIA THROUGH WOMEN-FOCUSED MICROFINANCING

Esta Dana Ventura obtained a loan from GGSF to bolster its microloan portfolio, particularly to finance and empower Indonesian women, who account for 95% of its borrowers. This funding enabled the expansion of the institution's network into remote regions of Indonesia, such as Ternate and North Maluku, increasing the number of female borrowers to more than 250,000, with a total portfolio of almost USD 80 million. Esta Dana Ventura's network has grown from 48 branches in 2017 to 217 branches across Indonesia by 2023.

The GGSF funding also supported the institution's liquidity, enabling it to provide financial assistance to clients while investing in and continuously upgrading their technology, establishing itself as one of the most digitally advanced microfinance institutions in Indonesia.

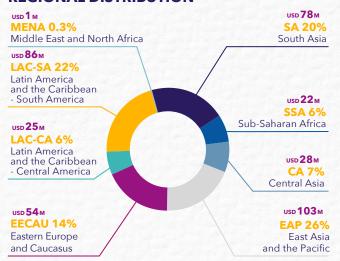

Beyond financial stability, the loans provided by Esta Dana Ventura to its end borrowers instil a renewed sense of hope and confidence in clients, empowering them to overcome challenges, develop their businesses, create new job opportunities, stimulate local economies, and contribute to the overall vitality of the business ecosystem.

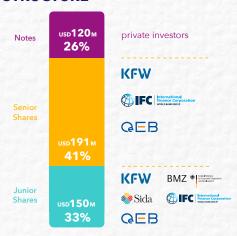

An exemplary initiative is AkuEsta, a project where women are trained to create handcrafted bags, with the necessary materials financed until the products are sold. This project predominantly supports women, with 95% of its loans directed to female entrepreneurs. Furthermore, 76% of its workforce consists of women, emphasizing its commitment to empowering women through both financial support and employment opportunities.
